FELLOWSHIP

Miss Esther Briesmeister and Mrs. Winona H. Chambers from the national YWCA, who are conducting the Leadership Training Program, will give talks on "Leadership, Resettlement and Outside Conditions" tonight. You are welcome to attend this fellowship at P.S. Hall 20 from 7:30. Miss Grayco Kaneda will be chairman.

COMING

Dr. Maxfield Garrott of McGehee will be our morning speaker next Sunday. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed after the morning message.

Invitation has been extended to Rabbi Ira Sanders of Little Rock to be our guest speaker at the evening fellowship next Sunday. He has been a faculty member of the University of Arkansas for many years and is a distinguished scholar.

HAPPINESS HOUR

Wednesday night's speaker will be Bette Ishibashi, who will tell us about her recent trips to Elizabethtown, Ky., and Conway, Ark. A lively period of singspiration will be followed by reading of letters from relocated members.

• CHOIR •

In response to the need of a choir in our worship service, the choir resumed practice last Tuesday night at the church. With about 30 people present, preparation for Christmas music was begun. All those who are interested are cordially invited to join.

PERSONALS

Congratulations to Samuel Fukushima who was initiated into the Pi Omega Pi, honorary fraternity for business educators, at the Colorado State College of Education in Greeley, Colorado.

Our former choir members, Harold Noguchi and Roy Uno are working in a paper box company in Chicago.

Sue Yasutake relocated for work to Freeport, Illinois.

Florine Manderbach and Dorothy Brown, nurses of our hospital, who were transferred to Granada Center send best regards to our Y.P.

Henry Ikemoto left Tuesday for Baylor University, Waco, Texas, to prepare himself for the ministry.

GOODWILL

Michio Mizuo, Kimi Nemoto, and Yuriko Uyehara attended the Student Christian Association Conference at Little Rock. They represented the center YWCA and our church.

Botte Ishibashi spoke at Central College, Conway, Ark.

Rev. K. H. Sakano left Friday to speak at the Pulaski County Baptist Association. He is preaching this morning at the First Baptist Church of Hughes, Arkansas.

PRAYER

Remember to pray for:

Dorothy Takako Ogata who underwent an operation.

Kathryn Kikuchi who is in the Little Rock Hospital.

Roy Nakazawa who is recovering from his recent illness.

THANKS!

To Walter Saito, whose new address is 214 N. Thayer St., Ann Arbor, Michigan, and to Reiji Hoshizaki, who is attending Baylor University, for their generous donations for church work.

To Mr. Merrill H. Ziegler for the helpful books he contributed to the church library at 20-6-F.
